Roosevelt now thinks he's got Senator Hanna skinned to death. Much prospective triumph doth really make him "pomperious."

The Charleston News and Courier is a hundred years old. You old thing! and here you are keeping up with the times as if you were still young.

So Roosevelt now says "Senator Hanna has a perfect right to become a candidate for President if he chooses." There is reason for Hanna to feel an overpowering sense of thankfulness that Teddy has at least found that out!

The associated press dispatches tell us that on the morning of January 21st an earthquake shock was felt all over the republic of Panama. Probably it was the same seizemic disturbance that occurred when the Panamanian revolutionists "rose as one man."

If Columbia has anything that we want she had better not "rise as one man" and stand there long enough for us to "touch" her. We left her a little something and she ought to be satisfied, or else we are liable to make her hold up both paws in the next inning.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that the exclusion of negroes from serving on grand juries in cases involving criminal charges against members of their race, is a violation of the constitution, and therefore not permissable. Uh, huh! But you have to first catch us excluding them.

We hope the Panama treaty will be confirmed and gotten out of the way so that by the time the campaign comes on the people will forget that the Democrats in Congress were apparently frosting the thing. As a campaign issue it will serve no purpose except to show up the unscrupleness of the Republican party, and that everybody knows already.

Occasionally we see in the Raleigh Post letters from Wilson that are fringed with the tinted emdroidery of the vocabulary. The melifluous wording, the felicitous expressions and the sparkling paragraphs all but too plainly tell us that it is the facile pen of our old friend Henry Blount, that very gifted, eloquent and wholesouled Carolinian who scatters naught but flowers where ere he wends his way.

RECORD OF COURTS.

Negro Woman Before the Mayor for Murderous Assault Upon an Old Man.

KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED.

South Carolina "Soon" Badly Slashed by Another and Sent to Hospital—Two Others in an Affray—Tramp Sailors in Custody.

In the police court yesterday Bessie Murphy, a young colored woman, was charged with making a desperate assault with a club axe upon an old negro shoemaker named Noah Williams, who appeared with his head bandaged up as the result of a very severe gash in the scalp from the blade of the weapon, which was produced in court. The facts of the case have been already published. The old man lived alone and while cobbling before the fire in his house, near Ninth and Grace streets, Tuesday night, the Murphy woman came in and asked for something with which to drive a tack out of her shoe. The old man gave her something in response to her request and after driving the tack out on the hearth, the woman asked the old man for some money. The old man replied that he had none and went on with his cobbling. The woman, stepped behind him and the old man unconscious of any danger, said the next thing he knew women were tieing up his head. One witness testified that the axe was lying in a pool of blood on the floor and the old man was unconscious in his chair when she came in. The old shoemaker's pockets had been robbed of $1.05. A colored woman with whom the Murphy girl lived was introduced to prove an alibi for the defendant, but the witness proved a fine one for the State. She said Bessie Murphy said she was going off to get some money to buy something to eat, and that she went off and came back with $1.05—the amount stolen from the old man. The assault occurred while the woman was absent from her home. The defendant still contended, however, that she was at home when Williams was clubbed, and said the old man was mad with her because she wouldn't marry him. The Mayor held the woman for the Superior Court in default of $100 bond.

Negro Slashed Another.

Shed Hines, a young negro who says he came from Sumter, S. C., and has been employed for some time at the Armour Fertilizer Works, was badly slashed on the left arm late yesterday afternoon by Dave Macons, colored, who is employed at Cape Fear lumber mill, near which the cutting took place. The cause of the affair could not be ascertained. A warrant was issued by Justice Fowler for the arrest of Macon and Hines went to the City Hall, where he was examined by Dr. Harper and sent to the hospital in the patrol wagon. He had a gash about eight inches long and an inch and a half deep on the arm near the shoulder. The main artery barely missed having been severed. The police last night arrested John Young and Andrew McLean, both colored, who are charged with the cutting of Hines, though Hines says Macon was the man who did the slashing. Hines was under the influence of liquor when the trouble occurred, and the police say they have the right parties, notwithstanding the statements of the wounded negro, who was disposed to assume an air of mystery about the affair when he was taken to the hospital.

Smashed in the Head.

Kim Hamilton, an old, one-legged colored man employed at the Champion Compress, got too much liquor aboard yesterday afternoon and was making a nuisance of himself in the vicinity of Second and Princess streets. He at length got so bold as to strike Joseph Tate, a young negro, with a cane which he carried. Tate carried an umbrella and in retaliation smashed the old "soak" over the head with it, laying his scalp open. Deputy Sheriff Howe saw the occurence and carried them both before Justice Fowler, who required of each a bond of $25 for their appearance in his court to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock to answer charges of assault and battery.

Suspicious Sailors.

Two sailors who applied for lodging at the police station before day yesterday morning are held for further advices. The men said they came from Norfolk, but their actions were rather suspicious and it was decided best to detain them a while.

Meeting For Men.

The Y. M. C. A. men's meeting at 5 P. M. to-day will be addressed by the Rev. Fred. D. Hale of Hot Springs, Ark., who comes topreach a series of sermons at the First Baptist church. The Association male quartette will sing "Drifting," by Wm. J. Kirkpatrick, and "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken," by D. B. Tower.

Masquerade Ball.

All arrangements are complete for the grand bal masque to be given next Wednesday night in Germania Hall under the auspices of the Merry Companion Social Club. The affair promises to be a big success. Music will be furnished by a string band. Tickets for sale by the committee, admitting lady and gentleman, for $1.00.

The much talked of sale of white goods and embroidery will be at Reder's this entire week. Read their ad in this paper.

BIG WEEK OF REPERTOIRE.

Edeall-Winthrope Company Begin Engagement at Academy, Presenting "Brother Against Brother."

To-morrow night at the Academy another week of popular price repertoire will be inaugurated and the engagement bids fair to be a most auspicious one both artistically and financially, as the company is said to be one of the very best of its kind on the road. Wilmington theatre-goers are especially fond of this class of attraction when it is of the best. The play selected for the opening to-morrow night is the great English drama "Brother against Brother," a piece of unusual strength both as to high dramatic quality and pure, wholesome comedy. It will be presented with special scenery.

MISS WINTHROPE, SOUBRETTE.

The vaudeville programme which will be given, as usual, between acts will be a splendid one and will be presented by a large corps of clever artists, a number of whom have appeared on the boards of the leading vaudeville houses of the country. Seats for the opening performance will be on sale at Plummer's until to-morrow afternoon at 6 o'clock.

CRIMINAL COURT TO-MORROW.

Term of Three Weeks Will Begin To-Morrow—Ready for Terry Trial.

Solicitor Rodolph Duffy and his law partner, E. M. Koonce, Esq., arrived yesterday, the former to prosecute the entire civil docket at this week's term of court and Mr. Koonce to assist Mr. Duffy in the prosecution of the Terry murder case. Judge Garland S. Ferguson is expected to arrive to-day from Kenansville and the court will be convened at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. Solicitor Duffy said yesterday there were seventy odd matters on the trial docket, only a very few of which are submissions. He is ready for trial as to Terry and thinks the case should be reached not later than Wednesday. He expects his other associate counsel, Messrs. Schulken & Lewis from Whiteville to-day.

W. R. Terry, of Raleigh, a son of the accused man, arrived yesterday and will be with his father during the trial. The prisoner is reported to be confident of acquittal and in good health. He is said to be anxious and willing for a trial.

ORIGINAL CARTOONS EXHIBITED.

Some of Davenport's Work on Exhibition at DeRosset's Book Store.

Three of Mr. Davenport's original cartoons will be placed on exhibition to-morrow in the window of DeRosset's book store. They show the great originality of the cartoonist, and each cartoon deals with a different subject. One is political, one a "trust," and the other a moral subject. No one should miss the chance to view these works, and they will be there until the evening of Mr. Davenport's visit—Wednesday, January 27th, when he will talk about the "Power of a Cartoon," at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium. His entertainment is a succession of anecdotes, adventures and experiences, mostly humorous, and illustrated with rapid cartoon drawing by Mr. Davenport, which keeps his audience in a bubble of merriment the entire evening.

Sale of seats will open to-morrow morning at DeRosset's. General admission 50 cents; 10 cents extra for reserved seats.

TO EXTEND ITS LINES.

Long Distance Service in Prospect Between Wilmington, N.C., and Florence, S.C.

COLUMBUS TELEPHONE CO.

Property Conveyed by Receiver C. D. Weeks to Jno. H. Gore, Esq., Trustee — Whiteville, Chadbourn and Others in Territory.

It is learned from a reliable source that the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., will shortly extend its Southern Bell long distance lines from Wilmington to Florence, S. C., and that a party of prospectors are now on the survey of the route. At Florence the line will connect directly with the main line extending South and will also give long distance service to the immediate country between Wilmington and Florence, including Whiteville, Chadbourn, Fair Bluff, Marion, Mullins and other territory now embraced by the re organized Columbus Telephone Company, which has a traffic agreement with the Bell Company. At present the long distance service South is given Wilmington through Selma, N. C., but the connecting link between Wilmington and Florence now in prospect will make communication direct.

A deed was executed yesterday, transferring from C. D. Weeks, receiver, to Jno. H. Gore, trustee for the re-organized Columbus Telephone Company, all the property of that corporation, the consideration being $2,755. The lines of the company now extend from Wilmington as far as Council's Station and from Wilmington to Southport. Upon completion of the long distance lines between Wilmington and Florence the territory covered by the Columbus company will be accessible to all the millions of points covered by the big corporation. A metallic line is now being built from Council's Station to Chadbourn, a distance of about 25 miles, so as that territory may be included in the traffic agreement reached about a year ago.

TO PRESENT BIBLE AND FLAG.

Jeff Davis Council Jr., O. U. A. M., Will Present Tokens to Masonboro School.

Jeff Davis Council, No. 63, Jr. O. U. A. M., of this city, will present Masonboro District School No. 4, with a flag and bible on Thursday evening Feb. 11th, at 3 P. M. Mr. W. J. [illegible] and Mr. William J. Bellamy will be the orator of the day, presenting the flag and bible. Miss Mattie McGowan will accept the gifts in behalf of the school.

Hon. Geo. E. Hood, State Councilor of the order, has been invited to be present. The committee will arrange for wagonettes to carry members and visitors at 25 cents for the round trip. The programme for the occasion will be announced later. The committee of arrangements are Messrs. John E. Wood, Walter E. Yopp, J. C. Burke, G. C. Simmons, R. H. Hewlett and M. F. Beasely.

The school is taught by Prof. J. P. Herring and in connection with the flag raising, North Carolina Day will be celebrated. County Superintendent Catlett and other prominent school authorities will attend.

To Honor Miss Bradley.

In another column of to-day's paper the former pupils of the Tileston Normal and the Old Union schools are officially invited to attend a meeting in the "Upper Room" of the Tileston building Tuesday night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of taking some steps to provide a lasting memorial to their late friend and teacher, Miss Amy Bradley. The call is signed by prominent business and professional men and the spirit of the same will no doubt appeal strongly to all interested. The movement is exclusive of that already inaugurated by the Alumni Association of the Tileston High School.

Handsome Law Offices.

Messrs. Russell & Gore have fitted up a handsome private office adjoining their general consultaton rooms in the Allen building. The ceiling is of decorated canvas; the walls are handsomely frescoed with oak trimming, while the floor is of beautiful rift sawed North Carolina pine in natural colors. The famous Wernicker elastic book cases are used in the room and every other convenience known to the manufacturers of office supplies is employed. The offices of Messrs. Russell & Gore in their entirety are among the very best equipped in the State.

Rolled Off the Fender.

A negro was scooped up on the fender of car No. 20, of the street railway line, nearly opposite The Orton last night. The man was rolled over and over and finally pitched off to one side of the track unhurt. A number of people saw the accident and hurried to the man, thinking he had been severely injured or killed, but he jumped up and exclaimed that he was not hurt and told the motorman to go ahead. However, it was a narrow escape and, in the opinion of bystanders, the fender saved his life.

The Smallpox Patient.

Dr. C. T. Harper, city superintendent of health, reports that young Hilburn, the smallpox patient, is convalescing rapidly. His associate, young Beers, who was detained at the pest house with the patient, has shown no symptoms of the disease and will be discharged on Tuesday of this week.

STILL RIGHT AFTER THEM.

Chamber of Commerce Again Invokes Aid of Corporation Commission in Struggle With Seaboard—Address

The following letter to the shippers of the Chamber of Commerce has been drawn by President J. A. Taylor and a copy of the same was mailed yesterday to each member of the body interested. The letter is self explanatory:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 23.

To Members:

S. A. L. Service.

The Seaboard Air Line's new management have shown their hand. You will recall that the S. A. L. issued a circular in November discontinuing flag stations between Wilmington and Hamlet, and that this Chamber carried the matter to the corporation commission and had the stations restored. Investigation disclosed that the S. A. L. had without warrant or color of law discontinued these stations, and the prompt action of the corporation commission in the premises was supposed to have definitely settled the matter; but in this supposition we have been woefully disappointed, and the purpose of this railway system to disregard its public obligations in direct defiance of law has been made manifest by the issuance of a circular without authority of law and to which publicity was never given, under date of January 8th, effective January 18th discontinuing all the stations, with the possible exception of one, restored by the order of the corporation commission. The matter has again been carried to the commission.

It is the purpose of this letter not only to advise you of the situation, but to suggest that the Wilmington shippers tender shipments, in the regular course of business, for these abolished stations, and in the event that they are refused, to require the agent to endorse across the face of the bill of lading, over his signature as agent, formal notice of refusal. The law cannot be violated with impunity, and its infraction subjects the offending party to penalty.

This Chamber will prosecute all infractions of the law if shippers, acting on the suggestion herein, will procure the evidence of refusal of shipments.

We would indeed prove ourselves simple to expect any relief other than by force. The S. A. L. has given unmistakable evidence of its purpose to ignore the just needs and business requirements of this city, and the public is not powerless to gain redress if its rights are vigorously asserted.

You are earnestly requested to support, by your individual actions, this Chamber in its efforts to safeguard the public welfare.

Yours respectfully,
J. A. TAYLOR, President.

TRIPLE CHARGE OF MURDER.

Desperate Negro Arrested Near Raleigh Yesterday—Swift & Co. Domesticate.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 23.—Will Adams, a negro, was arrested and held by the coroner's jury to-day for the murder of Mary Bridgers, colored, and her two children at their home twelve miles from Raleigh last evening as was told of in yesterday's Associated Press dispatches. Evidence before the jury was that Adams was seen at the Bridgers house during the afternoon although he stoutly denied being there. There is also other circumstantial evidence. When a posse went to his house he refused to open the door, and several volleys were fired in at windows. He fought like a tiger when the door was broken open.

Swift & Company, meat packers, of Chicago, capital $100,000, domesticated to-day for the purpose of establishing a branch office in Wilmington in charge of A. C. Landes. L. F. Swift is president and D. E. Hartwell, secretary, of the general company.

Bowling Alley Contest.

In an exciting bowling contest on the Pastime alleys last night between the Coast Line team and Capt. Davis' team, the latter was victorious in a score of 1,991 to 1,948. George Crow made the highest score for Capt. Davis' team. While the team scores are not large the contest was fast and exciting. The next contest takes place Wednesday night of this week.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 24.

OUR SUPREMACY IN COTTON.

The STAR a few days ago mentioned that the great conflicts between nations in modern times are brought about by the competition for trade supremacy. The commercial spirit of civilized nations is brought about by the necessity of giving remunerative employment to the people and also to provide compensatory investment for capital. As long as there is labor and as long as there is capital this competition between nations will go on.

For humanity's sake wars would probably disappear from the earth in this enlightened age, but when nations believe that their life and preservation depends on trade there will be fighting—pretty much on the same principle that dogs fight over a toothsome bone. This new cause for war also assumes a serious aspect for all the leading nations of the world, and the little bones as well, for they are the bones of contention. Formerly when two nations went to war they were alone concerned, but now these trade wars involve the interests of all and when two nations go to war, the international trade relations are such that all peoples are affected. War in Europe or the East puts up the price of meat and grain products in America, causing poor people to pay higher prices and enriching another class. War between America and any European nation would affect the food supply over there, and as Europe is dependent on the United States for cotton, such a war would be disastrous to Europe and particularly to the South.

At the present time the South furnishes the principal supply of cotton for the world, but Great Britain, Germany and France see the day that they cannot depend on the South for their supply of raw cotton. They are therefore exploiting Africa and other portions of she world to develop the cotton growing industry, to free themselves from dependency on America for their cotton, and possibly to preserve their cotton manufacturing industries from destruction by those of America, which will sooner or later have supremacy owing to their advantage in being in the country that produces the raw supply. Germany's war now going on in Southwest Africa and Great Britain's war on the west coast are the result of trade aggressions and more likely for the curing cotton-producing territory.

However, the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin assures us that "our natural advantages in cotton," the United States will hold the supremacy both in the growing of cotton and its manufacture. That able paper, in its issue of January 19th, says:

> The great cotton manufacturing district of England is in a peculiar position of dependence. It was stated at the recent meeting of manufacturers at Manchester that the mills of Lancashire represented a capital £100,000,000 and an annual product of £90,000,000, of which £70,000,000 was exported. An important part of the export is to India, which is a cotton producing country and has made a beginning of manufacturing, for which it has demanded "protection."

Andrew Caird, writing to the London Mail, says: "Lancashire depends upon the cheapness of American cotton for the bulk of its great export to India. When the price of raw cotton goes beyond 3½ pence per pound it is difficult to sell the finished article at a price which the natives of India can afford to pay." This not only illustrates the hard position that Lancashire is in, but suggests the great natural advantage of the United States for cotton manufacturing. We produce in our Southern States, including in that category Oklahoma and the Indian Territory, about 80 per cent. of all the raw cottou used in the world. Great Britain has to import every pound that she manufactures, taking most of it from this country and transporting it in bulk three thousand miles and more. Then she must export by far the larger part of the product, the cheaper fabrics going a still greater distance to India, China and South America, while some of the finer ones come back here to be sold in our markets.

The present high price of cotton is not the only danger to the Lancashire mills. The tendency of recent years has been toward the building of mills in our Southern States for manufacturing the coarser and cheaper finished goods, while those of New England have been working up to those of finer quality. It is a practical certainty that we shall use an increasing proportion of our supply of raw cotton, supply our own requirements for finished goods to a growing extent, and, a reasonable policy in foreign trade, more and more encroach upon the markets which England has so long been accustomed to supply. We have every advantage in the competition, and it will be little to our credit if we do not profit by it. It is no wonder that the English cotton manufacturers are made anxious by the situation that confronts them, which they are disposed to attribute too much to mere speculation in the raw material. In the present condition of supply and demand the legitimate price is decidedly above 3½ pence a pound, and is likely to remain so until there is a considerable increase in the supply. It will take time to effect that increase from other sources than the United States, and the result of experiments in Africa and elsewhere is in much doubt. Meantime our advantage is a continuing one, but its benefit will depend in no small degree upon a lower price, for we can manufacture only what there is a selling market for.

Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in stomach and liver troubles. They not only relieve but cure. Only 25c at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

THE APPALACHIAN FOREST RESERVE.

Georgia wants to butt in on the proposed Appalachian forest reserve, the bill for which is now pending in Congress. Originally it was intended to reserve an extensive tract in the western and mountain portion of North Carolina, and if the reservation includes portions of North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia, all of which States will probably want to figure in it, the region in North Carolina will be necessarily contracted as compared with the scope of country which the present bill contemplates. Senator Overman, of this State, is in charge of the bill and recently secured a favorable report on it from the committee.

Here is what the Atlanta Journal of Tuesday says about it:

> The beginning of forest reservation by the government of the United States is less than a dozen years old. Since the beginning in 1892, millions of acres in California, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Washington, New Mexico, Oregon, South Dakota and Wyoming have been reserved, and we are face to face with the fact that nothing has been done in the Eastern or Southern States to preserve the timber supply to our part of the country.
>
> A national forestry system was agitated nearly thirty years ago, but it was not until 1891 that the President had authority to set aside such lands as are here mentioned.
>
> In the years to come the destruction of our timber will be accounted almost akin to a crime. It has been sheer vandalism in many of its distinguishing features, and the sooner our people come to their senses the better it will be for the entire country in protecting the forest growth.
>
> If a forest reserve should ever be established in the eastern section of the federal union, it must embrace lands where Tennessee, North Carolina and Georgia meet and join; and Georgia has more to offer than any or all of the three named in this connection. There is a section which still holds on the soil the original primeval forest growth. There are tracts of five hundred acres that are known to exist in a body where no clearings have ever been made, in White county, Georgia, and doubtless there are many thousands of such acres in that broken mountainous country. The timber is fine, and the commercial hard woods of the South Atlantic region must soon be in great demand, as the soft woods of the West disappear.
>
> National parks are different from forest reserves. Forest reserves are set aside for the protection of the timber and to protect the water sheds. Georgia has an immense opportunity in this forest reserve policy. The land can be purchased by the government at very small figures, and the value of the timber, judiciously cut, would meet all expenses many times over.

Says the Charlotte Chronicle of Jan. 21st:

> Col. H. C. Eccles, of this city, is one of the most ardent supporters of the Appalachian Park bill in this section. Col. Eccles is only waiting now for the bill to be introduced in the lower House of Congress when he expects to go to Washington to do what he can in favor of the bill.
>
> It is not generally known, but over 200,000 acres of the land included in the proposed park lies in a body in Caldwell, Watauga and Avery counties and is the property of the estate of Dr. R. Y. McAden, and Dr. J. H. McAden, of this city, is trustee of this vast tract, which would become a part of the park if the bill passes.
> Col. Eccles is of the opinion that the bill will be passed by Congress, it having already passed the Senate by a big majority. The secretary of the Appalachian Park Association, Dr. Ambler, of Asheville, is sending out literature on the subject, says Col. Eccles, and the association is doing all in its power to make the movement a success. The amount of money is ten million dollars and Col. Eccles believes that this amount will be forthcoming. Only two Senators have opposed the bill and these have now come around all right. Contrary to what might be expected Col. Eccles says that many and perhaps a majority of the lumber men of the Appalachian section favor the bill as it would prevent the denudation and final destruction of the forests.

—"Gee, no!" exclaimed the pretty cash girl. "I don't want nothin' to do with you. I wouldn't marry you if you was the last man on earth. Is that plain enough English for you?" "It is certainly plain enough," said the mortified bookkeeper. "But it isn't English."—Chicago Tribune.

—"Don't you know," said the man who scatters advice indiscriminately, "that if you didn't use tobacco you could own your house?" "You misapprehend the situation," answered Mr. Meekton. "If I used tobacco I'd have to own my own house. Henrietta would never let me live in ours."

— Slumslopogas, the aboriginal convert was sprinkled with water and became John. It being a High Church community, the pastor impressed on his flock the necessity, if they would be saved, of eating fish, and not meat, on Friday. But, alas for the frailty of flesh, the pastor, passing John's wigwam on a [illegible] beefsteak stewing. Said he: "Oh, John, this is indeed evil." The backslider made answer: "It's likee this, sir. A Mean Restriction.

"Oh, my," exclaimed the young wife, reading over the insurance policy on her husband's life in her favor, "this insurance company is just hateful!"

"Why, what's the matter?" asked her husband.

"Why, if you commit suicide they won't pay any money at all."—Philadelphia Press.

AN OPEN LETTER

TO THE PEOPLE OF WILMINGTON.

From Robt. R. Bellamy, Our Well-Known Druggist.

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in Wilmington in regard to advertised medicines and their value—the papers are full of them.

We want to say to every man, woman and child in Wilmington that we believe the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil—the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength creator—we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and, moreover, it is delicious to the taste.

Vinol acts first upon the stomach, tones up the digestive organs, creates an appetite, purifies and enriches the blood and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequalled to create an appetite and to make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold everywhere on a positive guarantee that if it does not give satisfaction, the entire purchase money will be refunded. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist.

One aggravating thing connected with the automobile is that even should the public highways be so improved as to permit of high speed with the machine the law will so limit the speed in the interest of public safety that running a machine will seem like making but twenty miles an hour on a fast mail train.

A young friend of ours has started this season to lay the foundation for a future herd of fine cattle. He has bought three registered Polled Angus heifers and a bull. If he will take proper care of these animals, he will have a herd inside of ten years which he will be proud of and which will make him a lot of money.

A Minnesota man sowed four pounds of rape with a crop of early sown millet and claims that it is a success, the rape making a new growth after the millet was cut and affording an abundance of good sheep pasture till frost came. We should think that there would be trouble in curing the millet with more or less of the rape in it.

The greatest loss to those sections of the Mississippi valley which have been visited with such tremendous floods this season has not been in the crops or bridges destroyed, but rather in the loss in sod fertility by erosion over millions of acres of choice farm land, every farmer contributing not a little of the best part of his farm to the rushing waters which carried it off in solution to the ocean.

Experiments made by the department of agriculture in Connecticut in the curing of Sumatra tobacco prove that choice leaf can be produced in that state under cover at a cost of 25 cents a pound and a yield of 1,000 pounds per acre obtained. As the product is worth $1.25 per pound in the market a very handsome profit is realized. It is not likely that the growing of this leaf need be confined to Connecticut either.

The writer personally cares for a vegetable and small fruit garden containing a little over one-half acre of ground. The seeds are all sown and the land well cultivated and kept free from all weeds by the use of a Planet Junior cultivator. So adaptable and useful do we find this tool and so well does it do its work that we had rather have it to use in our garden than the best man we know of working for nothing with a hoe.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake is Made By Many Wilmington Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache.

To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.

Backache is kidney ache.

You must cure the kidneys.

A Wilmington resident tells you how this can be done.

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street, between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniments but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. C., sole agents for the United States.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The cotton market opened easy at a decline of eight to fourteen points under liquidation following cables that were lower than expected and reports that the latest advances had interrupted spot demand in the South. The bullishness of the week-end figures and the continued light receipts, with the estimate for next week's into sight, placing it at only 220,000 bales against 261,000 bales last year served, in connection with the continued bullish attitude of the market leaders, to restrict offerings and after the opening the market ruled steady to firm with fluctuations, however, narrow and irregular.

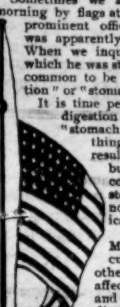
AT HALF MAST.



Sometimes we are greeted in the morning by flags at half-mast for some prominent official who yesterday was apparently in perfect health. When we inquire the ailment by which he was stricken it is not uncommon to be told "acute indigestion" or "stomach trouble."

It is time people learned that indigestion or any form of "stomach trouble" is not a thing to trifle with. The result may not be fatal, but there can be no condition of diseased stomach which does not carry with it physical loss and weakness.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures indigestion and other forms of disease affecting the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"Thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. Charles H. German, of Lehighton, Pa. "It is the only medicine that has done me any good. I tried everything I could think of to cure indigestion, and found I was only throwing away money. Then I heard of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and tried a bottle of it, and to my joy found it was doing me good. I used six bottles of it, and am now cured. It is the best medicine on earth."

This grand remedy does its work in a thorough manner; it gives the health that is all health; the strength that is solid, substantial and lasting; not flabby fat, not false stimulus, but genuine, complete, renewed vitality and life force.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its consequences.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— There is a case of small pox at Monroe, and also one Wadesboro.

— The Mooresville Cotton Mills, in Mecklenburg county, has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent.

— The Harbinger, an organized labor paper published at Raleigh by Editor Pat McGowan, advocates the nomination of Wm. R. Hearst for President.

— Lalisbury Sun: Major Stedman's speech at Charlotte on the joint anniversary celebration of the birth of Lee and Jackson was a model of its kind.

— The novelist, Mrs. James M. Tiernan (Christian Reid) was elected honorary president for life by the Salisbury Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, Jan. 19th.

— Charlotte Chronicle: Col. Al. Fairbrother thinks the Raleigh dispensary is too exacting in making a 66⅔ per cent. profit on the liquor sold, and the burden of proof is on the dispensary.

— Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes and Miss Elizabeth Forrest Laughinghouse, at home in Greenville, February 3rd. The bride is a sister of Col. Grimes' first wife.

— Raleigh Times: A gentleman from the country was speaking today of growing cotton and the growing prices of cotton, and said that yesterday he sold eight bales for $482, and that just exactly six years ago he sold eight bales of good cotton for $160.25.

— Hon. James A. Bryan, of Newbern, president of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, was in Raleigh on Friday and secured a charter for the Newbern Savings Bank, which is to be organized within the next few days. The capital is to be $100,000 authorized and $15,000 subscribed by J. A. Bryan, J. H. Hickman and George H. Roberts.

— Chatham Blade: Mr. W. H. Jackson has the prize big hog of the county which has the appearance of being a near relative to an elephant. Its jumbo dimensions are length, from tip of nose to tip of tail, 8½ feet, height 3 feet, breadth of head from tip to tip of ears, 2 feet and 4 inches. Who can beat this monster in size.

Smithfield Herald: Mr. W. J. Thorne, who lives in the southern part of Oneal's township, killed the largest hog seen in that section in many years. The hog weighed 1,065 pounds gross, and 803 after being dressed. The hog was 8 feet, 2 inches long and 2 feet 2 inches across the shoulders. The head alone weighed 56 pounds. Our reporter says the hog looked more like a mule lying down than anything else.

— Kinston Free Press: Mules and cotton are always associated, in the minds of people, and the present high price of the staple meets with sympathetic response from the mule and the two are to-day higher in price than they have been since the war, says a local horse dealer. Mr. W. D. LaRoque, who returned this morning from purchasing stock in Norfolk, tell the reporter that a car load of mules sold under the hammer there yesterday for $190 a head.

— The Oxford Ledger, referring to the burning of the seminary there on Monday last, says: Mr. Wayne Gooch, of Clarksville, Va., dreamed that the Seminary was burned Sunday night, which worried him a great deal Monday morning, so much so that he called Mr. R. Broughton up over the 'phone. He told him of his dream and wanted to know if it was so, and while talking to Mr. Broughton the alarm was given and the cry rang up and down the streets that the Seminary was on fire, and Mr. Broughton sorrowfully informed Mr. Gooch that it was then burning. This is rather a peculiar coincidence, to say the least of it.

— Raleigh correspondence of The Charlotte News: A peculiar case of stolid impudence on the part of a prisoner occured last evening when Judge Brown in Wake court ordered a sentence of four years for Chas. Alexander for beating and robbing a negro boy, leaving him unconscious to almost freeze. When the sentence was pronounced Alexander asked the judge to please make it five years. The order was changed, Then a negro woman stated that Alexander had threatened to kill her and other prosecuting witnesses when he served his term. So the judge made the sentence seven years. Can't you even it up? asked Alexander. Yes, replied the judge, Mr. Clerk make the sentence ten years. Thank you, promptly answered the sullen negro.

— The civil term of the Superior Court which is to convene at Durham to-morrow has on the docket numerous damage suits in which the total amount involved is $150,000. Among the cases, Mrs. Mamie A. Nunnally sues the Seaboard Air Line for $30,000 for the death of her husband, who was a conductor on that road. R. H. Clayton sues the North Carolina (Southern) Railroad Company for $30,000 for the loss of the leg of his son, David Clayton, on account of an accident in the shops at Spencer. W. H. Dixon sues the city for $2,500, and E. W. Canady, the colored lawyer, sues the city for $3,500, both alleging injuries from falling into holes in the streets. Mrs. Fannie Blalock sues the Willard Manufacturing Company for $10,000 for injuries to her son, Reuben Blalock. There are quite a number of cases, from $1,000 to $3,000, most of them against corporations.

— Russia is endeavoring to put it on high moral grounds that the Japanese are pagans and should not for this reason be permitted to extend their zone of influence by getting control of Cores. The Russians themselves are semi-barbarians, and sorry guides in the path of truth.—Charlotte News.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite, and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run-down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50c a bottle.

EVENING ON THE PORCH.

When work is over for the day
And twilight gathers round
And Lucy takes the garden hose
And wets the dusty ground,
While through the dusk,
Where scents of musk
Are borne upon the breeze,
A voice says: "Law!
I never saw
Rose bushes grow like these!"
That's when the world
Is brighter than
The firefly's fickle torch,
When kids roll on
The level lawn
And chairs are on the porch.

When darkness finally settles down
And drives away the heat
And ends the ball game which the boys
Are playing in the street,
Oh, then's the time
When half in rhyme
The dreams go to and fro,
With oceans of
Bright stars above
And seas of love below,
Till reason says
It's time to leave
The night, the damp, the air,
But with the dreams
A something seems
To chain one to the chair.

Two Texts.

Two stories are told in Harper's Magazine of ministers' stumbling on texts of a humorous personal application.

One was a very young minister, having charge of his first church and preaching a series of sermons on the life and utterances of St. Paul. The last one of these was given just before taking his leave, and during his absence he expected to take unto himself a wife, his engagement having been announced. After turning over the leaves of the Bible thoughtfully he said, "I invite your attention this evening to these words of the great apostle, 'I am ready now to be offered up.'"

The other minister was a widower who had remarried within a year after his first wife's death. His friends and congregation thought him very expeditious, and on the next Sunday, when his text was announced, they could scarcely control themselves. He rose in his place in his pulpit and said, "My beloved brethren, you will find my text in the seventeenth verse of the fourth chapter of Second Corinthians, 'Our light affliction, which is for the moment.'"

All Marked Down.

"Oh, yes, he's saved a good many lives."

"Then I suppose he has saved a good deal of money too?"

"No; he's poor."

"That's strange. How about the rewards from the grateful people he has pulled out of the water?"

"Oh, the trouble with them is that they put their own valuation on the goods saved."—Cleveland Leader.

Now let the defendants, Whitfield Turner and Richard Turner, be and appear before me at my office, in the Court House in Wilmington, N. Dr. Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga

Dear Sir: This is the first certificate that I have ever given as to the merits of any medicine, but I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial. I consider it the best remedy that I have ever used in my family for Stomach and Bowel Troubles. 50c invested in a bottle of this medicine to be used in the beginning of any stomach trouble will often save life as well as a large doctor's bill. I have a friend whose life was, in my opinion, saved by the prompt use of Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial. For sale by all Druggists, 25 and 50c per bottle.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. THE PANAMA QUESTION.

Democratic Senators in Caucus Agree Upon a Resolution to be Presented to the Senate on Monday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The Democratic senators were in conference for almost three hours to-day on the Panama question and when they adjourned it was announced by Senator Gorman, chairman of the caucus, that the conference had agreed upon a resolution to be presented to the Senate asking for all the correspondence between the United States and Colombia since the negotiation of the Hay-Herran treaty. The fact was brought out in the course of the meeting that there are documents missing from the correspondence as published and the conclusion was reached that a resolution calling for all the missing papers would, if passed and complied with by the executive, meet all the requirements. The correspondence to be called for also will cover the period of the recent Panama revolt and all the official writings on that episode. The resolution will be presented Monday.

The conference also decided upon a resolution directing the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations to make an inquiry into the events connected with the Panama revolution.

Both resolutions were agreed to by all the Senators present.

The resolution of inquiry is so worded as to call for a statement from the President as to whether all the papers bearing on the situation have been sent in, and if they have not been communicated and the reason for failure to communicate is the fact that the President believes that to make them public would be incompatible with the public welfare, then the President is requested to send them to the Senate in confidence to be used in executive session only.

The resolution asking for an inquiry by the Foreign Relations Committee is directed toward securing an investigation into the Panama affair, and its purpose is to show whether or not the administration had foreknowledge of that affair and in any way encouraged it.

There were a number of speeches, but they related in the main to the phraseology of the resolutions. There was, however, more or less reference to the merits of the canal treaty, and in that connection several senators expressed themselves as very anxious to secure the canal. Some went so far to say they would vote for the treaty, but all condemned the methods of the administration in connection with the Panama uprising. Senator Money was among those who announced themselves for the treaty. Senator Clay and others expressed themselves as very desirous that all amicable arrangement be secured with Colombia, and in this connection hope was expressed that the government of the United States would see its way clear to accept the proposition said to have been made by General Reyes that the United States should pay Colombia $10,000,000.

Among those who spoke in opposition to the treaty were Senators Bailey, Morgan and Tillman. Some of the speakers who took the opposing view sharply criticised those who favored the treaty.

There was no effort to secure a rule for united action on the treaty and the general opinion among senators is that there will be no such effort unless positive information should be secured showing the complicity of this government in the Panama rebellion.

THE SITUATION MORE GLOOMY.

Japan Abandoons Every Hope of Securing Her Legitimate Demands Diplomatically.

TO-DAY WILL DECIDE IT.

Unusual Quantities of Naval and Military Stores Being Bought—Shipping Companies Preparing to Withdraw from Port Arthur.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PORT ARTHUR, Jan. 23.—High officials here say they believe war or peace will be decided upon to-day or to-morrow.

After the conference of the heads of all the departments of the Manchurian administration orders were issued that a list of every available army and navy reserve man in Manchuria be drawn up, as well as a list of those indispensable for the civil administration which it is impossible to send to the front. It is claimed that the reserves total 80,000 men. The bulk of the Port Arthur fleet is stationed just outside the mouth of the harbor.

Naval and military stores in unusual quantities are being bought on the condition of immediate delivery.

The admiralty authorities, answering inquiries on the part of ship-owners, decline to define the rights of neutral ships bound for Japan. Shipping rates have advanced a hundred per cent. during the last fortnight, otherwise the traffic of foreign ships, especially in Japanese coal, which is obtained by indirect purchase, continues normal. The shipping companies, however, are preparing to withdraw from here. The authorities are considering the question of removing the non-combatiants for these where transportation ships are in readiness.

Owing to the disorder in the native city here among the coolies because government work has been stopped, large guards occupy the streets nightly.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A dispatch to the Central News from Tokio says:

"An extraordinary issue of the Gazette has been published containing an imperial ordinance approving the various coast defence regulations and forbidding under stated penalties the navigation of private vessels, fishing within specific area or the carrying out of marine work which might be inimical to Japanese naval interests.

"The decree is regarded as being highly significant.

"The Kokumin Shumbun, in a warlike editorial, declares that the arrival or non-arrival of Russia's reply does not affect the situation, and says: 'Every hope of receiving the legitimate demands of Japan diplomatically have been abandoned, and the government, therefore, is compelled to take such steps and reserve to itself such as will insure perpetual peace.'"

VERDICT NOT GUILTY.

Mrs. Bechtel Acquitted of the Charge of Being an Accessory, After the Fact to the Murder of Her Daughter.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Catherine Bechtel, the aged mother of [illegible] dered last October, was to-day acquitted of the charge of being an accessory to the murder after the fact. Her trial occupied nine days and the jury deliberated one hour before rendering the verdict of not guilty. The gray haired defendant received the news of her acquittal with tears and expressions of joy. She was immediately released from custody and went to her home, accompanied by her sons, John and Charles, who are under indictment on a similar charge, but their trials have been postponed until the April term of court. Former Mayor Schaadt, counsel for Mrs. Bechtel, says he has instituted an investigation by which he hopes to clear up the mystery surrounding the murder of the young woman.

Alois Eckstein and David Weisenberg, who were rivals for the affection of Mabel Bechtel, were both tried for her murder, and both were acquitted. Attorney Schaadt made an eloquent plea for the acquittal of the accused woman and during his address directly charged Eckstein with having a guilty knowledge of the crime. District Attorney Lichtenwalner in his address explained that the theory of the Commonwealth was that Tom Bechtel had killed his sister during a quarrel and asserted that the evidence adduced proved the claim. Judge Trexler's charge consumed a half hour. The spectators attempted to applaud the verdict but were checked by Judge Trexler.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Safe Blown Open and Nearly Four Hundred Dollars Secured.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

TITUSVILLE, Fla., Jan. 23.—Cracksmen blew open the safe here early this morning and took all the cash in it, amounting to nearly $400. They first went to a blacksmith shop and secured a sledgehammer, crowbar and other tools. They then broke open the front door of Kline's dry goods store and forced open the doors of his safe. They secured only about $30 in silver, overlooking bills, checks and postoffice orders. They then went to the postoffice, where they blew open the safe, wrecking it completely and damaging the building. They escaped, but to-day two men were arrested at New Smyrna charged with the robbery and brought here and placed in jail.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Jan. 23.—The protected cruiser Charleston was successfully launched at the yards of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company to-day. A heavy fog hung over the river and almost as soon as the ship struck the water she was lost to the view of the several thousand spectators. Miss Helen W. Rhett, daughter of Mayor R. G. After the launching the Newport News Company gave a luncheon in honor of the christening party and prominent guests.

MONEY WASTED ON AERIAL NAVIGATION.

Langley's Airship Criticised as Being Without Utility During Discussion in the House

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The House devoted the entire day to consideration of the Army Appropriation bill in committee of the whole. Mr. Robinson, Democrat, of Indiana, took occasion to criticize the War Department for the expenditures made by the Bureau of Ordnance and Fortifications in connection with the Langley airship, declaring that such expenditures were without the sanction of Congress and that the airship was without utility.

Mr. Hemenway charged that over $100,000 had been "wasted on this scientific aerial navigation experiment that never had any utility because some man, perchance, a professor wandering in his dreams, sought to impress upon the officers who were charged with the expenditure of public money, that this aerial flight scheme that was attempted had some utility. He hypnotized them."

Concluding he said: "I take it that nobody upon that side of the House or this would expend, even where the law has sanctioned, this money that was sunk in the bottom of the Potomac river by this aerial navigation, this Don Quixote scheme of Professor Langley."

A spirited discussion was precipitated by Mr. Hemenway, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, who proposed a limitation on the purchase of books and periodicals for the army. The Dreyfus case, French novels and the character of the books in the department library were among the subjects discussed.

Mr. Hay, of Virginia, asked Mr. Hemenway who was responsible in the War Department for the purchase of French novels. The answer was that it had gone on for years, under the various secretaries of war.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, suggested that the House Committee on Agriculture had eradicated this same abuse in the Department of Agriculture library by limiting the appropriation to the purchase of technical works pertaining to the work of the department.

Mr. Slayden, of Texas, offered an amendment to this effect, which was adopted.

Mr. Hay, of Virginia, paid a high tribute to the medical corps for its contribution to science and efficiency.

A resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Navy for information as to the number of carriages maintained at government expense for the use of his department was adopted.

The House adjourned until Monday.

Court of Inquiry in Progress—No Motive Has Been Found for the Crime. One Arrest Made.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BEDFORD, IND., Jan. 23.—A court of inquiry, in progress here since the identification of Miss Sarah Schaefer as the victim of an atrocious murder here Thursday night, closed its session to-night without forming a solution as to the identity of the murderer or a motive for the crime.

Two men have been held as suspects, and in one case, that of Theodore Branham, held at Crothersville, an alibi has been proven. The only Bloomington is his description, and the fact that he was in hiding and resisted arrest.

A search is now being prosecuted for the writer of a mysterious letter, supposed to be a girl, where in are expressed statements that point toward a mutual acquaintance of Miss Schaefer and the unknown man with whom it is alleged she was seen Thursday night. It is believed that the discovery of the writer will enable the authorities to apprehend the murderer.

County Auditor Owens asserts that he saw a man standing at the corner of Fourteenth and L. streets about this time and his description of the stranger is identical with that given by Dreich. Upon the evidence, the police have based their thoory that the stranger met Miss Schaefer at the point where they were seen by Dreich at which time a quarrel is alleged to have occurred.

A few red hairs found clutched in the hands of the dead girl and believed to have been torn from the moustache of her murderer form the only clew. One arrest has been made. A red moustached man who looked as though he had been in a struggle, was arrested, but easily proved his innocence and was released. The hairs found in the dead girl's hand were from a white man.

A bloody fire brick found near the body was used to kill the girl.

The condition of the body was such to justify the belief of the physicians who held the autopsy, that the girl lived for several hours after she received the blows. No motive has been found for the crime. Miss Schaefer was not robbed. She was killed, but not otherwise mistreated. She had a fearful struggle with the assassin. Her clothing was badly torn.

THE ALABAMA CYCLONE.

Death List Amounts to Twenty-eight—Relief Measures Taken.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

TUSCALOOSA, ALA., Jan 23.—The death of one of the victims injured in the tornado which passed over Moundville, Ala., yesterday has increased the list of those killed in the storm to thirty-eight, six whites and thirty-two negroes. The dead man was a white farmer who lived four miles from Moundville, whose name has not yet been learned.

The funerals of Robert Powers, of Tuscaloosa, and Miss Nettie Farley, of Havana, were held to-day.

At the same time, twenty-five negroes who died in the tornado were buried. The number of wounded is estimated at sixty-five, of whom about a dozen are expected to die.

Ten negroes are are also expected to die from injuries. Relief measures are also being taken by citizens of Tuscaloosa, under the leadership of General W. W. Brandon, adjutant general of Alabama. Six hundred dollars was raised for the sufferers yesterday afternoon, while the pupils from the female seminary at Tuscaloosa went to Moundville and served hot coffee to the destitute and wounded. Telegrams have been sent from Birmingham offering assistance.

Mrs. Balliska Pentesko, aged 37 years, who was formerly a resident of New Orleans, has been arrested in Paris on charges of theft. Mrs. Pentesko was engaged as a visiting governess in several rich families and, it is alleged, purloined articles from the houses she visited and sold them to merchants.

DAMAGE DONE BY RISING RIVERS.

The Flood at Pittsburg, Pa., Not as Bad as Was Predicted by Weather Bureau.

SUFFERING HAS BEEN GREAT.

Workmen Flee for Their Lives—Passenger Train Caught by Rising Waters. Damage So Far Will Not Exceed Half a Million Dollars.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 23.—The flood danger at this point has passed. All day long both rivers continued to rise until 5 o'clock this evening, when thirty feet and one-tenth was reached at the Monongahela wharf. From that hour on the waters slowly receded, until 10 o'clock the guage registered 28 feet and was stationary. The temperature has gone down considerably and a light snow is falling.

The Allegheny is still full of running ice, but it is thinner than early in the day.

From the head waters on both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers the reports to-night show them to be either stationary or falling. At Oil City the Allegheny is 13 feet and falling six inches an hour, and at Warren the river is stationary.

At Greensboro on the Monongahela the mark is 15 feet 6 inches and falling. Colder weather with snow prevails.

A round up of the damage done in the Pittsburg district demonstrates that owing to the timely warning given of the approaching high water, the actual damage done will not reach the high figures at first given out and will probably not exceed a half million dollars. To this amount, however, must be added the loss to the manufactories and mills through forced shut downs and to workmen through suspended wages, which will run the total close to the million mark.

As yet no loss of life has been reported, but the suffering in the flooded portions of Pittsburg and Allegheny has been great.

The employes of the Marshal Foundry at Twenty-eighth street and the Allegheny Valley railroad tracks had a narrow escape from being caught in the water to-day. The mills were in operation as it was thought that the river would not find its way in before the afternoon. The men were at work when suddenly about 10 o'clock the flood poured into the works. The employes on the machines had barely time to seize their dinner pails and escape. Many of the workmen dropped their tools in flight.

A passenger train on the West Pennsylvania road this morning for Allegheny was caught by the rising water of the Allegheny river at Glassmere and the passengers had to be taken from the train by means of skiffs. More than a dozen skiffs were used to carry passengers to dry ground and trip after trip was made for nearly an hour to get all to the shore.

SHARON, Pa., Jan. 23.—Reports received here state that the Sharpsville bridge has been swept away and that four men went down with the bridge to death. Victor Dunham and three foreigners are said to have been on the bridge when it was swept away. The current is very swift at that point and the four men struggled desperately to reach the shore but [illegible]

Jacob Hoffman, of Salem, O., was also drowned in Yankee Run while attempting to ford the stream. Mrs. Hoffman, who accompanied him, was rescued by a lumber man. The flood to-day reached the highest stage ever known and is still rising. The damage here will reach thousands of dollars.

BEAVER, Pa., Jan. 23.—Two men, a woman and a baby are victims of the flood on Crow Island, in the Beaver river. They are residents of the island and this afternoon had to leave their homes and climb a tree to escape drowning. At midnight they are still there and cannot be rescued.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 23.—The wholesale business section of the city by midnight will be submerged, but the loss will be slight, the precaution to move perishable goods having been taken. The lower part of the fashionable residence section of the city known as the island has been submerged by three feet of water, and Bridgeport, Bellaire, Martin's Ferry and other small towns are partially inundated.

RADIUM-BEARING EARTH.

Richest Deposit in the World Discovered in Texas.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

AUSTIN, TEX., Jan. 23.—What is claimed to be the richest radium-bearing earth in the world has been discovered in the Llano gold and coal fields, 115 miles north of this city. Rumors of the discovery of earth bearing a large per cent. of radium in the Llano have been persistent for some time, and to-day these rumors were verified by the return of a party of scientists who had visited the mines to investigate the reports. These gentlemen state that the Llano earth will produce a larger percentage of radium than that of any other known deposit.

DYNAMITERS ARRESTED.

Charged With Holding Up a Seaboard Air Line Passenger Train.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 23.—S. A. Petty and M. Petty, charged with holding up and dynamiting the Seaboard Air Line passenger train at Sanderson on January 17th, have been captured. When arrested the men had dynamite in their possession. They have been identified by the engineer and baggagemaster. The United States authorities will charge them with firing into a mail coach and jeopardizing the life of the mail agent.

Major Lucas said that the pension scheme which was considered at a recent meeting was adopted. It applies to employes of the company over 61 years of age and of ten years service with the Coast Line or with any other system which the Coast Line has acquired control of. Beyond this matter Major Lucas said there was nothing else of interest to the public considered at the meeting."

A PANIC AMONG THE TENANTS OF BUILDING.

Masonic Temple, Chicago, on Fire—Its Occupants Escape Without Injury. Loss $20,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Fire in the Masonic Temple to-day caused a panic among the 4,000 occupants of the building and damaged the stock and fixtures of the tenants to the extent of $20,000. All occupants of the building escaped without serious injury through the bravery of the elevator man, who remained at their posts, operating their cars while dense clouds of smoke filled the building. The fire broke out in the suite of five rooms on the fifth floor occupied by Robert Friedlander & Co., manufacturers of X-ray apparatus. A lighted match carelessly thrown by an employe into a pile of excelsior lying in a corner of the packing room is believed to have started the fire. There were a large number of X-ray vacum tubes stored in the company's rooms and these exploded the moment the heat reached them. Robert Friendlander, senior member of the firm, realized the danger from these tubes, and worked till overcome by smoke through the windows. The fire spread rapidly. In a few minutes the entire suite and the lift shaft of the building was filled with flames.

The thousands of occupants of the building were alarmed when clouds of smoke filled every floor and rushed to the elevators. Many women fainted in the scramble to get into the elevators, but none were seriously injured. That the damage to property and injury to individuals was not greater was probably due to the efficiency of the drill of the employes organized since the Iroquois fire. When the great bell at the top of the rotunda sounded the alarm of fire, every janitor, engineer and fireman in the building responded and long before the fire department had reached the scene the Temple Fire Brigade had attached hose to the stand pipes which extend from the basement to the roof of the structure and eight streams of water were turned upon the conflagration by the volunteer firemen.

George Ashmore, a barber, and Tony, a boot black, climbed down the fire escape from the nineteenth floor of the temple. When the knowledge of the fire reached the barber shop, everybody made a rush for the elevators. They were full. Thereupon Ashmore and the boot black ran to the fire escape and started to climb downward.

"Several times," said Ashmore, "as we passed by a window smoke rolled out in volumes that threatened to suffocate us. But we knew it was death if we lost our head and we hung on. We were mighty glad when we reached the bottom."

White men and women were fleeing in wild confusion from the building. Lieutenant Commander John F. Luby, U. S. N., thundered "Sit down!" at a number of applicants for the navy who were undergoing examination before him in his office on the fourteenth floor.

"The first duty of the sailor is to obey orders," he shouted. "Go on with the examinations. The building is fire-proof."

The men obeyed. They remained at their desks, and while they did not attempt to answer the questions before them, they remained calm and cool until the fire was over and other tenants began flocking back to the buildings.

A movement for the erection of a monument to the late General John [illegible] began at Atlanta yesterday, when a committee to be known as the central executive committee was appointed for the receiving of subscriptions toward a monument. Sub committees are to be appointed in every Southern city.

The enormous wheat crop of 1901 has been absorbed without any marked depreciation of price. The short crops of other cereals have made this possible, wheat having been substituted for corn as a fattening ration for cattle and hogs.

The Canadian Pacific railway will shortly place the enormous amount of 23,000,000 acres of land on the market for settlers. While these lands lie far north and some of them are utterly worthless, there is much fertile soil, and all the cereals save corn will grow and do well.

We have come to the time when it is unlikely that anything new remains to be discovered about the mystery of milk and the making of butter. A more interesting thing than the evolution of butter making and the dairy has never been witnessed in this country.

It is only a few men who have the eye to draw a perfectly straight furrow when plowing or start the corn planter on a straight row. Where one does do this it always attracts attention and is quite apt to be an indicator of the general style on which his farm is run.

A flock of 300 Angora goats bought by a western farmer three years ago not only paid their way in wool, or hair rather, but sold for more money than he paid for them and cleaned up an eighty acre tract of rough brush in the very finest shape. These animals will do this every time.

There is one advantage on the farm, and it is no small one either, and that is the impossibility of there ever being an organized strike among farm laborers. No business could be taken such advantage of by laborers as that of the farm, and it is fortunate that it is from the nature of things exempt.
